KATHRYN “KITTY” MALONEY-LANGMADE RECEIVES XAVIER ALUMNAE WOMEN OF ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Xavier College Preparatory has named Kathryn “Kitty” Maloney-Langmade, president of W.J. Maloney Plumbing, Inc, a Xavier Alumnae Women of Achievement School Service Award winner for 2011. The honor is bestowed annually on alumnae who have distinguished themselves in service to the community and to the school.

The Women of Achievement Awards were started during Xavier’s 50th anniversary celebration in 1994 as a way of saying “thank you” for all the alumnae support the school has received over the years. Maloney-Langmade will be presented with her award at Xavier’s graduation Saturday, May 14.

Each year, Xavier recognizes two of its alumnae for their contributions to the school and community. Maloney-Langmade joins her sister Mary Ann Sheely, who received the award in 2004.

“I am extremely honored to be given this award,” Maloney-Langmade said. “The integrity, work ethic and commitment to faith, family and the community that were reinforced while at Xavier have carried into my adult life and I rely on that foundation every day as a parent, wife and business owner.”
