W.J. Maloney Plumbing, Heating & Cooling Names Angie Murray Risk Manager

W.J. Maloney Plumbing, Heating & Cooling has announced that Angie Murray has been named risk manager. Murray will lead and manage the company's daily functions related to risk assessment, project safety, training and claims for all projects.

Murray has been in risk management leadership roles for more than 10 years with some of Arizona's largest construction, plumbing and safety contractors and has extensive experience with public works projects as well as both federal and private construction projects. She has earned her Accredited Advisor in Insurance (AAI) and Registered Safety Officer (RSO) certifications, as well as leading and participating in numerous leadership and job training classes throughout her career.

"W.J. Maloney has always placed a high priority on safety," said Kathryn "Kitty" Maloney-Langmade, president of W.J. Maloney Plumbing, Heating & Cooling. "We are proud of the numerous safety awards we have won in the past and Angie will help us continue our role as one of the safest plumbing and HVAC contractors in Arizona as well as a leader in the industry."

Murray is a Gilbert resident.

Since 1964, W.J. Maloney Plumbing, Heating & Cooling has been a leading plumbing and HVAC contractor in the greater metropolitan Phoenix area. Working with many of the largest general contractors, the company has provided exemplary design build plumbing, from tenant improvement to complex multi-story projects that include many of the most prominent buildings in the Valley.

Current projects for W.J. Maloney include the new Chicago Cubs Spring Training Facility in Mesa, the Veteran's Administration Southeast Healthcare Clinic in Gilbert, Phase IV of CityScape Phoenix, the Sky Train Project at Sky Harbor International Airport and the Mariposa Land Port of Entry expansion near Nogales.

Recently completed projects include Phases I, II and III of CityScape Phoenix, the Orthopedic and Spine Inpatient Surgical (OASIS) Hospital in Phoenix and a major solar thermal project at the University of Arizona in Tucson.

W.J. Maloney Plumbing also provides extensive commercial and residential service, maintenance and repair, and is Small Business Enterprise (SBE) and Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) certified. For more information, call (602) 944-5516 or visit
